

red = error

#Agrs	Annot 1	Annot 2	Annot 3	adjud.	sentence
1	9	9	3	3	They <denied> that they had adopted a plan for guerrilla warfare and denied that the ANC was communist .
1	9	2.a	9	9	It is in connection with this perspective that Callinicos was concerned to <deny> the common conflation by postmodernists of Modernism with the Enlightenment .
1	3	3.s	3	3	Dr Crockett , Mr Michael Bewick , a leading kidney transplant surgeon , and Mr Michael Joyce , a urologist at Guy 's Hospital , <deny> professional misconduct over their involvement in transplanting kidneys from four living Turks , all of whom were paid for the organs .
1	3	2	3	3	The Iranians <deny> that , but in practice provide safe havens and allow the mujaheddin to come and go .
0	9	2.a	2	9	It 's an indication that they are working on it and what may seem to be an accepted fact one day can be vehemently <denied> the next as the bereaved person comes to terms with the loss .
3	9	9	9	9	They <deny> , however , that anything useful is added by referring to states of the brain in terms of awareness or consciousness , or even as representations of the environment .
3	9	9	9	9	But to say that my desire for coffee is the cause is not to <deny> that there are physical structures in my brain that are the cause , or that those structures are present because of my previous experience .
1	7	5	7	7	If the new democracies are <denied> markets for their goods , then they will be unable to obtain the hard currency they urgently need in order to carry out the far-reaching reforms that will modernise their economies .
0	7.s	7	8.a	7.s	Reward is often <denied> by people who train by correction only : the dog is commanded to sit and , if he does not respond , he receives a whack and is pushed into position .
3	9	9	9	9	Conversely , throughout this period Government Ministers strenuously <denied> that unemployment and social deprivation were significant causes of urban unrest .
3	9	9	9	9	Some have <denied> its relevance (` it 's the poetry that matters ') .
1	3	3	5	3	The guilty plea -- a surprise about-face by Hitachi which had strongly <denied> any wrong-doing -- follows several weeks of negotiations between the company and the
3	9	9	9	9	When genuine feelings are <denied> and pushed down , depression may follow .
3	11	11	11	11	The NSPCC considers it outrageous that children in the greatest need are <denied> the help they need because of the bureaucratic delays of an inefficient legal system .
0	9	2.a	12	9	How would we answer a modern philosopher , a Freudian psychologist , a follower of Guru Maharaj Ji , each of whom <denies> the truth of Christianity in a different way ?
3	10	10	10	10	There was , of course , no question of <denying> India the freedom which had so often been promised in the irresponsibility of opposition .
3	3	3	3	3	In the past , Debbie has <denied> infuriating her less-ebullient husband by dancing on a table to the song I 'm Too Sexy .
3	9	9	9	9	The BBC yesterday <denied> his shock departure -- nearly a year before the end of his contract -- was linked to the flop of the Spanish set soap opera .
3	9.a	9.a	9.a	9.a	Beauty that <denies> its opposite becomes shallow and artificial .
1	9	9	2	9	To <deny> this is to abandon all hope for liberal education , and to condemn the schools to a narrow policy based on vocational training .

3	9	9	9	9	9	She concludes from her study that ` the families of the writers were riddled with both creativity and mental illness ' , the two intertwining to an extent which would make it difficult to <deny> their real association .
3	9	9	9	9	9	I attach great importance to these observations because there is a fashion now in the humanities to <deny> that the old notion of human nature still has any utility .
1	9	2	9	9	9	But once again it is to <deny> that they can do this by virtue of their intrinsic properties as individuals .
3	9	9	9	9	9	Yet , while many chairmen persisted in <denying> it , the probability is that domestic prices remained inadequate to meet the overall costs of supplying domestic consumers , as they had been on nationalisation , though now for a new set of reasons , which betrayed a continuing inadequate degree of attention to proper costing exercises .
3	9	9	9	9	9	Not only do we find Lord Sumner in this case <denying> that elected members ` are to be guided by their personal opinions on political , economic , or social questions in administering the funds which they derive from levying rates ' but Lord Atkinson denounces the councillors for being guided ` by some eccentric principles of socialistic philanthropy , or by a feminist ambition to secure equality of the sexes in the world of wages ' .
1	11	11	10.a	11	11	So the highly defined agenda of a festival such as this may well be the way forward for gay men who 've long been marginalised and <denied> fair access to the media .
3	9	9	9	9	9	What can happen when the majority forget this , or try to <deny> it , can be seen today in Northern Ireland .
3	3	3	3	3	3	But the reliability of Mrs. Steed 's statement was seriously undermined by the circumstances that she had <denied> ever having seen the transfer and had denied that the signature was hers .
0	10	7.s	7.a	10	10	Some of the scope for the criticism of policy that comes to Opposition members is <denied> to government supporters .
3	9	9	9	9	9	A child who has lost its father either by death or divorce is not helped by a mother who <denies> her own sadness .
3	9	9	9	9	9	There is no doubt about the content of this divinely imparted illumination : ` who is a liar but he who <denies> that Jesus is the Christ ? ' (2:22) They are warned not to believe every spiritual manifestation , because the authentic disclosures of the Spirit always bear witness to the incarnate Jesus .
3	7	7	7	7	7	They gave their men a good meal on Euboian mutton (` <denying> it to the enemy ') , and after midnight , leaving their camp-fires burning , made off to the south .
3	9	9	9	9	9	Minimising -- accepting that there are problems but <denying> that they are of any great significance or that they necessarily have any connection with alcohol or drug use : " An alcoholic is someone who drinks more than I do . "
1	9	u	9	9	9	Was that closest of relationships still to be <denied> ?
3	9	9	9	9	9	But until this has actually proved to be possible -- and Jakobson would have <denied> that it is -- it seems reasonable to accept that both kinds of equivalence constitute a distinguishing feature , if not of all poetic language , at least of a great deal of it .
0	11	7	10.a	7	7	For our part , the Government were just not prepared to stand by and see our capital city and its people <denied> the benefits of this imaginative project .
1	9	9	3	3	3	A SOLDIER has <denied> that he fired a bullet recovered from the body of a teenage west Belfast girl shot dead in a stolen car .

0	11	7.s	10.a	11	China sent an observer to the conference for the first time , although observer status was <denied> to the New Caledonian FLNKS-sponsored " provisional government of Kanaky " , and to of an Australian " Aboriginal provisional government " .
3	9	9	9	9	In a statement issued on July 2 Bush said that it would remain US policy neither to confirm nor <deny> the presence of nuclear weapons , but that " where we 've said we do n't have those weapons on board , we mean it " .
1	7	7	x	7	The church 's vast wealth was accessible to the king on a scale <denied> even to the greatest of landed magnates .
0	11	7	10.a	11	If Soviet Russia is to be <denied> the hegemony of Europe , the United Kingdom must continue in existence as the principal power in Western Europe economically and militarily .
1	9	2	9	9	Secondly , although the belief we are <denying> poses as an affirmation grammatically or verbally , yet its content refers to a non-recognition of people , a negative judgement in this case of mammoth proportions on a whole people .
3	11	11	11	11	At least one of the scientists has admitted on television that he is now <denied> access to " defence secrets " .
1	9	3	9	3	Eddie tries to <deny> he still lives with his mum .
1	3	3	9	3	Norman Roberts , 59 , denies cruelty by ill-treatment and assault , Evelyn Roberts , 59 , <denies> cruelty by neglect , and their son Ian Roberts , 34 , denies common assault .
3	2	2	2	2	Both <deny> the charges .
3	9	9	9	9	But last night the NRHA spokeswoman emphatically <denied> her authority had any secret list , adding there was just one person in the North who was waiting more than two years for treatment .
3	2	2	2	2	LABOUR 'S claims that a national minimum wage would benefit workers were <denied> by a Conservative industry minister .
1	3.a	3	3	3.a	The American-born former wife of the Scottish peer <denies> three counts of doing acts tending or intended to pervert the course of justice .
3	3	3	3	3	Beverley Allitt : <Denies> four child murders