

Choose the pattern of CRY

We, the young graduate law-abiding wives of the thirties, cried ourselves as our babies went blue with cold...

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

When we were little children how eagerly we used to gather pieces of broken tile, little sticks, and mud with which to build houses and other tiny buildings, and if someone knocked them over, how heartbroken we were and how we cried!

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

Jenny, now happily married, cried when she heard her torturer was dead and said : 'I 'm relieved I will never again feel my stomach churn when a man with his silhouette passes me in the street'.

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

When Geoffrey son of Sarah of Empingham resisted this illegal demand, the forester raised the hue and cry upon him, and distrained him until he gave him two shillings and found sureties for appearing at the attachment court.

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

Most families tolerate and encourage the release of conflict whereby irritators are released through crying or yelling or confronting in other ways.

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

'Yes!' he cried, 'Yes!'

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

Birmingham is crying out for a venue for mid-size bands.

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

So Aaron makes a golden calf, and when the people see it, they cry, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

About the only place is the lavatory and in the lavatory you cry alone.

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

I did n't have a Valium injection and I did n't have laughing gas (who needs that when you've got an entertaining toothbrush ?), and I did n't cry or faint or bite the hygienist or do any of the things normally associated with one of my trips to the dentist.

[1] [4] [7] [u] [x]

Choose the pattern of SUBMIT

He visited certain continental veterinary schools in 1815 and 1816, but did not submit his report on these visits to the governors until June 1818.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

By the same token, those of us who become victims of fatal disease should be willing to submit to medical research for the better advantage of humanity.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

But, it is submitted, the law is as stated above.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

English Nature, the government 's adviser on nature conservation, has submitted 18 new areas to the Ministry of Agriculture for designation as Environmentally Sensitive Areas (ESAs).

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

The Buid rejection of isug does not imply a readiness to submit to the will of others.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

I submit that that is what the council tax is as well, 25 per cent.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

Those that are not reviewed are returned as rapidly as possible so that they may be submitted elsewhere without delay.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

In seeking to escape from this conclusion it was submitted in argument that the reasoning of the judgment did not show, or show sufficiently, that Thorpe J. had given due weight to W. 's wishes and that accordingly he had misdirected himself.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

The Soviet Union submitted a scheme envisaging the establishment of a joint commission by the Soviet and American military commands in Korea, which would advise on the formation of a provisional Korean government.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]

Pro-independence groups had submitted a series of similar declarations in March and April, each of which was defeated.

[1] [2] [4] [5] [u] [x]